

Accommodation vs. Modifications

Accommodations:

- No change to curriculum. Change in instructional methods.
- Schoolwork and homework broken down into small steps.
- Instructions for assignments presented orally and in writing.
- Written assignments read aloud to student.
- Graphic organizers used to present material visually.
- Small group or individual testing assignments.
- Additional breaks during class.
- Extended time for assignments.
- Homework assignments reduced

Modifications:

- Change to curriculum. Alternative or reduced assignment.
- Focus on functional skills curriculum
- Alternate math or reading curriculum at student's level.
- Shortened writing assignments